UNPUBLISHED DECISION AWARDING
ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS¹

Pending before the Court is petitioner Alan Peterson's motion for final attorneys' fees and costs. He is awarded $55,558.08.

On June 2, 2017, petitioner filed for compensation under the Nation Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10 through 34. Petitioner alleged that the influenza vaccine he received on October 27, 2015, which is contained in the Vaccine Injury Table, 42 C.F.R. §100.3(a), caused him to suffer a shoulder injury related to vaccine administration or, in the alternative, caused a significant aggravation of a pre-existing shoulder condition. Petitioner further alleged that he suffered the residual effects of this injury for more than six months. In lieu of a hearing, the parties agreed to proceed with videotaped depositions of witnesses and on October 23, 2019, the undersigned issued his ruling finding facts. 2019 WL 6139494 (Fed. Cl. Spec. Mstr. Oct. 23, 2019). Thereafter, the parties engaged in settlement discussions and on September 9, 2020, the parties filed a stipulation, which the undersigned adopted as his decision awarding compensation on the same day.

On November 25, 2020, petitioner filed a motion for final attorneys' fees and costs ("Fees App."). Petitioner requests attorneys' fees of $43,472.40 and attorneys' costs of $12,885.68 for a total request of $56,358.08. Fees App. at 2. Pursuant to General Order No. 9, petitioner warrants that he has not personally incurred any costs related to the prosecution of his case. Id. On December 15, 2020, respondent filed a response to petitioner's motion. Respondent argues that "[n]either the Vaccine Act nor Vaccine Rule 13 contemplates any role for respondent in the resolution of a request by a petitioner for an award of attorneys' fees and costs." Response at 1. Respondent adds, however that he "is satisfied the statutory requirements for an award of attorneys' fees and costs are met in this case." Id. at 2. Additionally, he recommends "that the Court exercise its discretion" when determining a reasonable award for attorneys' fees and costs. Id. at 3. Petitioner did not file a reply thereafter.

Because petitioner received compensation, he is entitled to an award of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs. 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(e). Thus, the question at bar is whether the requested amount is reasonable.

The Vaccine Act permits an award of reasonable attorney's fees and costs. §15(e). The Federal Circuit has approved the lodestar approach to determine reasonable attorneys' fees and costs under the Vaccine Act. This is a two-step process. Avera v. Sec'y of Health & Human Servs., 515 F.3d 1343, 1348 (Fed. Cir. 2008). First, a court determines an "initial estimate ... by 'multiplying the number of hours reasonably expended on the litigation times a reasonable hourly rate.'" Id. at 1347-48 (quoting Blum v. Stenson, 465 U.S. 886, 888 (1984)). Second, the court may make an upward or downward departure from the initial calculation of the fee award based on specific findings. Id. at 1348. Here, because the lodestar process yields a reasonable result, no additional adjustments are required. Instead, the analysis focuses on the elements of the lodestar formula, a reasonable hourly rate and a reasonable number of hours.

In light of the Secretary's lack of objection, the undersigned has reviewed the fee application for its reasonableness. See McIntosh v. Sec'y of Health & Human Servs., 139 Fed. Cl. 238 (2018)

A. Reasonable Hourly Rates

Under the Vaccine Act, special masters, in general, should use the forum (District of Columbia) rate in the lodestar calculation. Avera, 515 F.3d at 1349. There is, however, an exception (the so-called Davis County exception) to this general rule when the bulk of the work is done outside the District of Columbia and the attorneys' rates are substantially lower. Id. 1349 (citing Davis Cty. Solid Waste Mgmt. and Energy Recovery Special Serv. Dist. v. U.S. Envtl. Prot. Agency, 169 F.3d 755, 758 (D.C. Cir. 1999)). In this case, all the attorneys' work was done outside of the District of Columbia.

Petitioner requests the following rates of compensation for the work of his counsel, Ms. Shealene Mancuso: $225.00 per hour for work performed in 2017, $233.00 per hour for work performed in 2018, $250.00 per hour for work performed in 2019, and $275.00 per hour for work performed in 2020. The undersigned has reviewed the requested rates and finds them to be reasonable and consistent with what special masters have previously awarded to petitioner's counsel at Muller Brazil, LLP for her Vaccine Program work. See, e.g. Wood v. Sec'y of Health & Human Servs., No. 15-1568V, 2019 WL 518521 (Fed. Cl. Spec. Mstr. Jan. 11, 2019); Ditsche v. Sec'y of Health & Human Servs., No. 18-511V, 2020 WL 1815767 (Fed. Cl. Spec. Mstr. Mar. 10, 2020). Accordingly, the requested hourly rates are reasonable.

B. Reasonable Number of Hours

The second factor in the lodestar formula is a reasonable number of hours. Reasonable hours are not excessive, redundant, or otherwise unnecessary. See Saxton v. Sec'y of Health & Human Servs., 3 F.3d 1517, 1521 (Fed. Cir. 1993). The Secretary also did not directly challenge any of the requested hours as unreasonable.

The undersigned has reviewed the submitted billing entries and on the whole, the request is reasonable. However, a minor amount of time was billed for administrative tasks such as filing medical records by attorneys and paralegals and attorneys billing time to direct the filing of those records. See Guerrero v Sec’y of Health & Human Servs., No. 12-689V, 2015 WL 3745354, at *6 (Fed. Cl. Spec. Mstr. May 22, 2015) (citing cases), mot. for rev. den’d in relevant part and granted in non-relevant part, 124 Fed. Cl. 153, 160 (2015), app. dismissed, No. 2016-1753 (Fed. Cir. Apr. 22, 2016).

Based upon the undersigned’s overall perception of the time billed after review, a reduction of $800.00 is appropriate in order to achieve “rough justice.” See Florence v. Sec’y of Health & Human Servs., No. 15-255V, 2016 WL 6459592, at *5 (Fed. Cl. Spec. Mstr. Oct. 6, 2016) (citing Fox v. Vice, 563 U.S. 826, 838 (2011)). In sum, petitioner is awarded final attorneys’ fees of $42,672.40.

C. Costs Incurred

Like attorneys’ fees, a request for reimbursement of costs must be reasonable. Perreira v. Sec’y of Health & Human Servs., 27 Fed. Cl. 29, 34 (Fed. Cl. 1992), aff’d, 33 F.3d 1375 (Fed. Cir. 1994). Petitioner requests a total of $12,885.68 in attorneys’ costs. This amount is comprised of acquiring medical records, the Court’s filing fee, postage, costs associated with traveling to conduct video depositions, and work performed by petitioner’s medical expert, Dr. Naveed Natanzi.

In the instant case, Dr. Natanzi billed his time at $475.00 per hour. Fees App. at 72. The undersigned notes that Dr. Natanzi has previously been awarded (and billed at) $425.00 per hour for Vaccine Program work. See Deberry v. Sec’y of Health & Human Servs., No. 17415V, 2020 WL 1893528 (Fed. Cl. Spec. Mstr. Mar. 9, 2020) (awarding Dr. Natanzi $425.00 per hour); Massucci v. Sec’y of Health & Human Servs., No. 17-1345V, 2020 WL 5407840 (Fed. Cl. Spec. Mstr. Aug. 19, 2020) (same). The undersigned also notes that Dr. Natanzi recently had his hourly rate increased to the requested $475.00 per hour. See Macaluso v. Sec’y of Health & Human Servs., No. 18-614V, 2021 WL 1251105 (Fed. Cl. Spec. Mstr. Feb. 26, 2021). In Macaluso, petitioner’s counsel (the same counsel as in the instant case) argued that Dr. Natanzi’s expertise regarding SIRVA objectively grew between 2018 and 2019, and the special master’s reasoned analysis held that for work performed in 2019 and onward, $475.00 per hour is a reasonable hourly rate for Dr. Natanzi.

Overall, petitioner has provided adequate documentation supporting all of the requested costs and they are reasonable in the undersigned’s experience. Accordingly, the undersigned finds that petitioner’s request for attorneys’ costs is reasonable and shall be awarded in full.

E. Conclusion

The Vaccine Act permits an award of reasonable attorney's fees and costs. 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(e). Accordingly, I award a total of $55,558.08 (representing $42,672.40 in attorneys' fees and $12,885.68 in attorneys' costs) as a lump sum in the form of a check jointly payable to petitioner and petitioner's counsel, Mr. Paul Brazil.

In the absence of a motion for review filed pursuant to RCFC Appendix B, the clerk of the court is directed to enter judgment herewith.²
